7th Annual Tricky Tray Fundraising Event

had to be canceled. When Hurricane Irene slammed into our main office, the town of Springfield lost power which in turn rendered the local drainage system inoperable. After hours and hours of rain and no power, 3 feet of sewage backed-up into our office space.....and Tricky Tray closet.

Hurricane Irene flooding ruined over 85% of the fabulous gifts donated by local merchants and families for this year's sit-down dinner event.

However, we will host an Online Auction offering incredible gifts that survived the hurricane, as well as new items which our amazing solicitation committee has still been collecting!

Please continue to check back as we will shortly post an update regarding when the online auction will start and how to access the website. If you are not yet on our mailing lists, please send us your contact info by clicking here.

Thank you for your support during this difficult time. We hope you will join us and make our Online Tricky Tray a success!
